Beloved Christian Brothers and Sisters,

I hope by the grace of Allah, you are doing well. By Allah's mercy, I too am doing fine.

I write to you as a well-wishing, compassionate brother. I love and care for you deeply because you are my brothers and sisters in humanity. Prophet Adam (peace be upon him) is our shared father, and Eve (peace be upon her) is our shared mother. Just as children of the same parents are siblings to one another, you, too, are also my brothers and sisters.

When a sibling faces trouble, and the blood-related brother learns of it, what is his responsibility? It is his noble duty to try his utmost to rescue his brother or sister from that predicament.

In the same way, I have come to know and firmly believe through my religious scripture, that the faith and ideology you currently follow are leading you towards eternal danger. After death, a severe and everlasting calamity awaits you. This calamity is none other than Jahannam—(the Hellfire), which some refer to as Hell.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Would you not consider evaluating this matter even once before plunging into this eternal fire?

If my soul, which is so dear and precious to me, departs while I am clinging to beliefs and traditions passed down through generations, have I truly understood what ultimate reality awaits me? What is that truth, and have I given myself a fair chance to contemplate it?

Driven by the sincere love I hold for you, my heart—burdened with pain and concern—compels me to write this letter. This letter is small, yet immensely valuable, and flows from the ink of my heartfelt prayers and tear-stained appeals to Allah on your behalf.

At times, when I think of you, I am struck with admiration. You are such wonderful people! You are kind, selfless, and dedicated to serving others regardless of race or creed. You possess qualities that I myself might lack. But then, alas! I grieve deeply to realize that all these virtues, efforts, and sacrifices will bring you no benefit after death because you lack one priceless and essential treasure: true faith (Iman) which is the essence of Surah Ikhlas, Quran-Chapter-112 (The core message of this Quranic chapter, which is the absolute oneness of Allah (God), declaring that He is singular, unique, and has no partners or equals).

Without Iman (True Faith - The absolute oneness of Allah (God), declaring that He is singular, unique, and has no partners or equals), after death, you will face eternal suffering in the blazing Hellfire—a life with a beginning but no end. Have you given thought to how you would endure such fire? How would you bear the torment of Hell? We cannot even endure the small flame of a candle in this world, so how will we bear the eternal fire of Hell, which is millions of times more intense? This fire will incinerate the body 70 times over every moment.

When I reflect on these matters, my heart becomes restless, and my soul is filled with anguish. From the depths of my heart, I pray to Allah:

“O Allah, Most Merciful and Compassionate, save my Christian brothers and sisters from the fire of Hell. Grant them the understanding and guidance to embrace the truth. Grant them the ability to believe in You.”

Tears flow from my eyes as I make these prayers for you, my dear brothers and sisters, so that you may be saved from the fire of Hell.

Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

You have an incredibly simple way to enter Paradise: a slight change in belief and actions. You already believe in Allah, but alongside Him, you associate others as partners in worship (shirk). However, Allah despises nothing more than associating partners with Him. Worshiping others or seeking help from anyone other than the Creator, Sustainer, and Destroyer—Allah—is the greatest sin. Allah alone is the Master and Lord of everything.

In the final divine scripture, the Quran, in Surah Ikhlas, Allah says in the first verse:

قُلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ أَحَدٌ ۝

“Say: He is Allah, the One.”

You, however, associate Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam) as a partner with Allah. This contradicts the second verse of Surah Ikhlas, where Allah declares:

اللَّهُ الصَّمَدُ ۝

“Allah is self-sufficient, free of need.”

We depend on Allah, but Allah depends on no one. Furthermore, Allah has no children. However, you believe Jesus to be the son of Allah. This belief is incorrect. Jesus was a servant and messenger of Allah, not His son.

My dear brothers and sisters,

I invite you to a profound truth: remove this misconception from your hearts and believe in the oneness of Allah. Believe that Allah has no children. Jesus, or Isa, alayhis salam, is a prophet of Allah, not His son.

In the third verse of Surah Ikhlas, Allah says:

لَمْ يَلِدْ ۖ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ۖ

“He neither begets nor is born, nor is there to Him any equivalent.”

Yet, you hold the erroneous belief that Jesus is equivalent to Allah. But Allah, the All-Knowing, has said otherwise, and His words are undoubtedly true. Any belief contrary to His words is assuredly false.

I share this with you out of love and concern for your well-being. Believe with certainty:

- No one is equal to Allah.
- Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam) was a servant and messenger of Allah.
- Jesus cannot benefit or harm us in any way.

The ability to bring benefit or harm belongs solely to Allah, the Creator of all things.

You have also been taught that Jesus was crucified and that through his crucifixion, he absolved humanity of its sins. This belief is also completely incorrect and fabricated. Allah clarifies in the Quran:

وَقَوْلِهِمْ إِنَّا قَتَلْنَا الْمَسِيحَ عِيسَى ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ۚ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ وَمَا صَلَبُوهُ وَلَكِنْ شُبِّهَ لَهُمْ ۚ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ اخْتَلَفُوا فِيهِ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِّنْهُ ۚ مَا لَهُمْ بِهِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِلَّا اتِّبَاعَ الظَّنِّ ۚ وَمَا قَتَلُوهُ يَقِينًا ﴿٥٧﴾

“And they did not kill him, nor did they crucify him; but [another] was made to resemble him to them. And indeed, those who differ over it are in doubt about it. They have no knowledge of it except the following assumption. And they did not kill him, for certain.”

(Surah An-Nisa, 4:157)

Allah explicitly states that Jesus was not crucified, yet you believe he was. This belief is false. Instead, Allah raised Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam) to Himself. Allah says:

بَلْ رَفَعَهُ اللَّهُ إِلَيْهِ ۖ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ۝١٥٨

“Rather, Allah raised him to Himself. And ever is Allah Exalted in Might and Wise.”

(Surah An-Nisa, 4:158)

For your own welfare, I earnestly urge you to abandon these beliefs.

The Truth About Jesus According to Allah

Let me now share with you the real and true account of Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam), as conveyed by Allah Himself.

“When Jesus came with clear proofs, he said, ‘I have come to you with wisdom and to make clear to you some of that over which you differ. So fear Allah and obey me. Indeed, Allah is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is the straight path.’” (Surah Az-Zukhruf, 43:63-64)

Allah refutes the concept of the Trinity in the Quran:

“They have certainly disbelieved who say that Allah is the Messiah, the son of Mary. While the Messiah said, ‘O Children of Israel, worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord.’ Indeed, he who associates others with Allah—Allah has forbidden him Paradise, and his refuge is the Fire. And there are no helpers for the wrongdoers.” (Surah Al-Ma'idah, 5:72)

“They have certainly disbelieved who say, ‘Allah is the third of three.’ And there is no deity except one God. And if they do not desist from what they are saying, there will surely afflict the disbelievers among them a painful punishment.” (Surah Al-Ma'idah, 5:73)

Dear brothers and sisters,

This is a sincere plea from your well-wisher. Reflect on these truths and embrace the path that leads to eternal salvation. Allah, in His mercy, is ready to forgive all who turn to Him with sincerity.

May Allah guide you and grant you the understanding to embrace the oneness of Allah and the truth about Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam).

Beloved Christian Brothers and Sisters,

Allah mentions in the Quran an important dialogue between Him and Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam) that highlights the truth about the misconceptions surrounding Jesus' divinity. Let us listen to what Allah says:

“And [beware the Day] when Allah will say, ‘O Jesus, Son of Mary, did you say to the people, ‘Take me and my mother as deities besides Allah?’ He will say, ‘Exalted are You! It was not for me to say that to which I have no right. If I had said it, You would have known it. You know what is within myself, and I do not know what is within Yourself.

Indeed, it is You who is Knower of the unseen. I said not to them except what You commanded me – to worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord. And I was a witness over them as long as I was among them; but when You took me up, You were the Observer over them, and You are, over all things, Witness.”
(Surah Al-Ma'idah, 5:116-117)

The Miracles of Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam)

Allah reminds us of the miracles performed by Jesus through Allah's will. Allah says:

“[The Day] when Allah will say, ‘O Jesus, Son of Mary, remember My favor upon you and upon your mother when I supported you with the pure spirit, and you spoke to the people in the cradle and in maturity; and [remember] when I taught you writing and wisdom and the Torah and the Gospel; and when you designed from clay [what was] like the form of a bird with My permission, then you breathed into it, and it became a bird with My permission; and you healed the blind and the leper with My permission; and when you brought forth the dead with My permission; and when I restrained the Children of Israel from [killing] you when you came to them with clear proofs and those who disbelieved among them said, ‘This is nothing but obvious magic.’ And [remember] when I inspired to the disciples, ‘Believe in Me and in My messenger [Jesus],’ they said, ‘We have believed, so bear witness that indeed we are Muslims [in submission to Allah].’” (Surah Al-Ma'idah, 5:110-111)

A Common Misunderstanding: The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him)

Many people mistakenly believe that Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was sent only for Muslims. This is a misunderstanding shared by both Muslims and non-Muslims. The reality is the opposite. Muhammad (peace be upon him) was sent as a messenger for all of humanity—Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Christians, and others alike. Allah declares in the Quran: “Say, [O Muhammad], ‘O mankind, indeed I am the Messenger of Allah to you all.’” (Surah Al-A'raf, 7:158)

Here, Allah uses the word “Nas”, which means "mankind." This includes you and me—every human being. Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) is not just my Prophet but also your Prophet. Recognizing and following him is as essential for you as it is for me.

Throughout history, Allah sent prophets to guide humanity back to His worship and to reconnect with Him. Humans, though pure at birth, often stray into sin due to the influence of Satan. Prophets were sent to show the correct path and invite people to truth, beauty, and eternal success. All prophets were true and divinely appointed. However, when a new prophet was sent, it became necessary to follow the new prophet while continuing to honor and respect the previous ones.

An Example for Clarity

Let's consider this example: In Bangladesh, the current Prime Minister is Dr. Yunus Sheikh Hasina. Before her, the Prime Minister was Sheikh Hasina Begum Khaleda Zia. Now, whom should we recognize as the Prime Minister? If someone still insists on recognizing Sheikh Hasina Begum Khaleda Zia as the Prime Minister, people will call them mistaken because Dr. Yunus Sheikh Hasina is now the leader. Similarly, we respect and honor Jesus (Isa, alayhis salam) as a true prophet. However, his prophethood is no longer active. The final Prophet, Muhammad (peace be upon him), has been sent, and we must follow him.

Allah has commanded both you and me to follow the last and final Prophet, Muhammad (peace be upon him), and obey him. Allah says:

“And obey Allah and the Messenger that you may obtain mercy.” (Surah Aal-E-Imran, 3:132)

If you seek closeness to Allah, do you want to be beloved to Him? Do you wish to attain Allah's mercy and forgiveness? Allah has shown the way:

“Say, [O Muhammad], ‘If you should love Allah, then follow me, so Allah will love you and forgive your sins. And Allah is Forgiving and Merciful.’” (Surah Aal-E-Imran, 3:31)

A Humble Request

Dear brothers and sisters, I sincerely urge you to accept Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) as your Prophet. Believe in him as the final messenger and affirm that Allah is the One and Only Creator. Declare with your heart and tongue that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah, and that Muhammad (peace be upon him) is His Prophet.

By doing this, you will, insha'Allah, be granted eternal success and salvation.

May Allah guide us all to the truth.

My dear brothers and sisters!

I will discuss another misconception with you, which is about the Quran. You may think that the Quran is solely a religious book for Muslims. Many Muslims also believe that the Quran was revealed only for us and is exclusively our religious text. This notion is entirely incorrect. Allah Himself states that the Quran is for all humanity. Allah says: "The month of Ramadan is that in which the Quran was revealed, a guidance for mankind and clear proofs of guidance and criterion between right and wrong."

Here, Allah has declared that the Quran is for all people. You are human, and so am I. Therefore, the Quran is for both you and me. The Quran is the word of Allah, and there is no doubt about its status as His word. At the very beginning of the Quran, Allah states: "This is that book about which there is no doubt, a guidance for those conscious of Allah."

Elsewhere, Allah challenges: "If you have any doubt regarding what I have revealed to My servant, then produce a surah like it. Bring your helpers along with you, except for Allah, if you are among the truthful."

Now, let's listen to a brief history of the Quran. Allah revealed this Quran to Muhammad (peace be upon him) through the angel Gabriel. The Prophet memorized this Quran in his heart, acted upon it, and conveyed its message to all people. His companions memorized it from him; they are known as Sahabah (companions). They acted upon it, and thus this Quran has reached us over time. Young children memorize this Quran as well. Allah has declared His protection over this Quran: "Indeed, We have sent down this message, and indeed, We will preserve it."

Dear brothers and sisters! This Quran has been sent by your Creator just for you. Why not read it once to see what your Creator says? Continue to act upon whatever you learn from the Quran. Insha'Allah (God willing), you will find the path to salvation and be able to achieve success.

Another misconception among us regarding Islam is that many believe Islam is only for Muslims. Many Muslims also think this way. In reality, this belief is completely false. Islam is not just a religion for Muslims; it is a religion for all nations and all people. The meaning of Islam is peace and submission to the Creator. Those who follow the path of peace and submit to one God are called Muslims. There is only one religion acceptable to Allah, which is Islam. Allah says: "Indeed, the only religion accepted by Allah is Islam."

Those who accept any ideology other than Islam will never find acceptance with Allah; such individuals will be among the most severely harmed. Allah says: "Whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted from him, and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers."

There is only one religion sent by Allah: Islam. Everything that comes from Allah for humanity in this world is equal for everyone—like light, air, rain, water—everything comes from Allah for humanity without division. There has never been a declaration or ruling from Allah stating that this light or air or rainwater is only for Muslims or only for Hindus; rather, Islam has also come from Allah for all people without division.

To attain salvation, everyone must accept this religion, practice it, and strive to spread it. No other religion besides Islam is acceptable to Allah. Hinduism is not acceptable to Allah; Christianity also does not hold acceptance with Him. Those who accept anything other than Islam as their religion will face severe consequences in the Hereafter; this is what Allah says:

Look my brothers! We must return to Allah; we have come from Him. He knows everything about us very well.

My Christian brothers and sisters! I humbly request you to embrace Islam. Accept this religion for your own welfare; otherwise, you will face harm in the Hereafter. I do not want you to become fuel for Hellfire.

Dear brothers and sisters!

If you do not accept Islam, you will burn in Hell forever; this is not an ordinary matter—forever means there's a beginning but no end. Have you ever thought about it? You cannot hold your finger in a candle flame for long; how then can you endure burning your entire life?

Think about it carefully; I say this out of love for you and for your welfare. Learn about Islam; read it, understand it, and accept it. Protect yourselves from loss in the Hereafter.

You do not know what horrifying conditions will arise if you die without accepting Islam. I present some verses from the Quran regarding this matter so that you may comprehend even slightly. Allah says:

"These two adversaries dispute concerning their Lord; but those who disbelieve will have garments of fire cut out for them; boiling water will be poured over their heads."

"And when they desire to escape from Hellfire they will be returned therein; and it will be said: 'Taste the punishment of eternity.'"

“And those who disbelieved will have fire in Hell; they will not be given death so they may die nor will its punishment be lightened for them.”

“Indeed, I punish every ungrateful one in such a manner.”

“There they will cry out: ‘Our Lord! Remove us; we will do good deeds other than what we used to do.’ (Allah) says: ‘Did We not grant you life long enough so that whoever would remember could remember? And there came to you a warner.’ So taste [the punishment]; there is no helper for the wrongdoers.”

“There is no doubt that those who reject My signs will be thrown into Hellfire; when their skins are burned off, We will replace them with other skins so they may taste punishment continuously.” Indeed, Allah is Exalted in Might and Wise.”

“Indeed, those who have denied My signs and have been arrogant towards them, the gates of heaven will not be opened for them, and they will not enter Paradise until a camel passes through the eye of a needle. Thus do I punish the criminals.” For them is a bed of Hellfire, and over them are canopies. Thus do I punish the wrongdoers.”

“Whoever turns away from My remembrance, his livelihood will be constricted, and I will raise him on the Day of Resurrection blind.” He will say, “My Lord, why have You raised me blind while I was seeing in the world?”

O my dear Christian brothers and sisters! If you accept Islam, you will find peace in your heart that you cannot find anywhere else in this world. Along with that, you will attain everlasting success. After death, you will enter Paradise and gain an eternal life of happiness.

Now listen about Paradise. Allah says: “You believed in My signs and were obedient. Enter Paradise, you and your spouses, in joy.” They will be served with golden dishes and cups, and therein is what the soul desires and what delights the eyes. You will abide therein forever. This is your inheritance of Paradise for what you used to do.

“Indeed, those who say ‘Our Lord is Allah,’ then remain steadfast, the angels descend upon them, saying: ‘Fear not and grieve not, but receive good tidings of Paradise which you were promised. We are your allies in this life and in the Hereafter. Therein for you is whatever your soul's desire, and therein for you is what you request.’ This is a provision from the Forgiving, Merciful.”

O my dear Christian brothers and sisters! If my words have caused anyone pain, please forgive me. Once again, forgive me for taking time to convey this truthful message to you. And do not misunderstand me; I am not your enemy but your true friend who wishes well for you. Our open enemy is Satan; he does not want you to walk the path to Paradise. He creates various temptations in your heart to prevent you from accepting the truth and following the right path. Allah says:

“O believers! Enter into Islam completely and do not follow the footsteps of Satan; indeed he is to you a manifest enemy.”

“Indeed, Satan is an enemy to you; so take him as an enemy. He calls his followers so that they may be among the companions of Hellfire.”

I do not seek anything in return for conveying this message from my Lord; its best reward will be with Allah.

Dear brothers and sisters! I am writing this letter while sitting in front of the most sacred place on earth, the Kaaba Sharif, during the best time of the year known as the last ten days of Ramadan. Before starting this letter, I prayed a lot to Allah for your guidance. I shed tears before Allah asking for your guidance, and I continue to do so. Insha'Allah (God willing), I will keep praying that Allah grants you understanding and gives you success in saving yourselves from the eternal fire of Hell after death.

Look, if you become Muslim, I gain nothing worldly from it. You will not give me even a penny; I do not expect that at all. This letter is written solely to please Allah and for your salvation in the Hereafter.

Now you may ask—what should I do if I want to accept Islam? You do not need to do much. Just believe that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammad (peace be upon him) is His servant and messenger. And verbally declare:

أشهد أن لا إله إلا الله وأشهد أن محمدًا عبده ورسوله

Pronunciation: “Ashhadu an la ilaha illallah wa ashhadu anna Muhammadur rasulullah”

Translation: “I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah (He is One without partners). And I bear witness that Muhammad (peace be upon him) is His servant and messenger.”

You should also follow Allah's commands according to the Quran and Sunnah. Pray five times a day, observe fasting during Ramadan, and strive to follow the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him).

Someone might say, “Are you trying to change our religion?” I would say—you do not need to change your religion. I am inviting you to return to your true faith that has always been yours. Our common ancestors Adam and Eve (peace be upon them) were Muslims.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said through Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him): “Every child is born on fitrah (Islam).

Then his parents make him a Jew or a Christian or a fire-worshipper.”

In conclusion, I urge you to accept this plea from your well-wishing brother and alleviate some of his anxiety by responding positively. I await your response.

Sincerely yours,
Your well-wisher,
jubaer Ahmad
